In follow-up for your contact on Dingell's team:

Consul General Comartin asked me to reiterate how grateful he is for Congresswoman Dingell's understanding of the situation surrounding the closure of the Ambassador Bridge. He appreciates her supportiveness regarding the steps taken today by Premier Ford. After the call he thought further about her offer of assistance and wishes to clarify that positive statements on the strength of our economic relationship would be very a constructive addition to the dialogue that she is having with her colleagues.

Readout:

February 11, 2022: DTROT HoM/Comartin had a short amicable call with Congresswoman Debbie Dingell (D-MI-12) in which they discussed the Ontario's state of emergency announcement and the pending injunction request by the City of Windsor. DTROT/HoM reassured that it is a priority to maintain the vital supply chains that Canada and Michigan depend upon. Rep. Dingell asked what she could do to assist and HoM suggested that positive statements from her office about these developments would serve to amplify to her colleagues in Michigan and to other key US stakeholders that steps are being taken at multiple levels of government to resolve the blockade.

Hi Jessica,

I hope you are well!

Mrs. Dingell was hoping to speak with Consul General Comartin.
Would it be possible to get a good phone number for him?

Thank you,
Elizabeth
